

Celebrate the life of Thomas Breakwell

Why not hold an event in your family or community to celebrate the life of Thomas Breakwell?

Here's some ideas:

Raise some money for the Fund in his name. Have a car wash or shoe shine.

Have a games night - invite everyone over and charge a small entrance fee for a fun packed time. Play lots of party and team games - charades, Pictionary, snakes and ladders. You could run a quiz, sell cakes and refreshments.

Hold a devotional meeting in his memory. Send out invitations and present everyone with a little card with a violet on when they leave. Draw a picture of one if you can't get the real thing.

Give a talk about Thomas Breakwell at a community event or even at school.

Put on a performance of the Thomas Breakwell play at a special event or at a 19-Day Feast.
